SMALL GROUP STUDY | End of year review

The end of a year is a good time to reflect on your personal life and the life of the small group. Use the following questions as a guide to reflect on 2013. Some of the questions are for group discussion, others are for personal reflection. Give everyone a copy of the questions.

FOR DISCUSSION | Discuss this section as a group (10 mins)

- Q1. What have you learned most about God this year?
- Q2. What have you learned most about yourself this year?
- Q3. What Bible verses / passages have been most important for you this year? Why? (Read them as a group).

FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION | Answer these on your own (15 mins)

- Q4. In what areas in my Christian walk have I made progress this year?
- Q5. Have I regressed in any areas?
- Q6. Am I struggling alone with any secret sins that no one else is aware of?
- Q7. If yes, who am I going to make aware of this struggle so they can pray and hold me accountable?
- Q8. In what area of my life do I want to grow most in the year ahead?

- Q9. Have I used my gifts and abilities to serve God's people and His church this year?
- Q10. Are there any changes I need to make in the near future concerning this?
- Q11. What am I believing God for in 2014?

FOR DISCUSSION | Discuss this section as a group (10 mins)

- Q12. In what areas have we as a group grown this year?
- Q13. In what areas do we as a group want to grow in the year ahead?
- Q14. How will we achieve these things?
